

Microsoft Services Agreement (<https://www.microsoft.com/en-US/servicesagreement>)

(as of 29/09/2017)

To the extent necessary to provide the Services to you and others, to protect you and the Services, and to improve Microsoft products and services, you grant to Microsoft a worldwide and royalty-free intellectual property license to use Your Content, for example, to make copies of, retain, transmit, reformat, display, and distribute via communication tools Your Content on the Services. If you publish Your Content in areas of the Service where it is available broadly online without restrictions, Your Content may appear in demonstrations or materials that promote the Service. Some of the Services are supported by advertising. Controls for how Microsoft personalizes advertising are available on the Security & privacy page of the Microsoft account management website. We do not use what you say in email, chat, video calls or voice mail, or your documents, photos or other personal files to target advertising to you. Our advertising policies are covered in detail in the Privacy Statement.

Google Terms of Service (<https://www.google.com/intl/en/policies/terms>)

(as of 29/09/2017)

When you upload, submit, store, send or receive content to or through our Services, you give Google (and those we work with) a worldwide license to use, host, store, reproduce, modify, create derivative works (such as those resulting from translations, adaptations or other changes we make so that your content works better with our Services), communicate, publish, publicly perform, publicly display and distribute such content. The rights you grant in this license are for the limited purpose of operating, promoting, and improving our Services, and to develop new ones.

Dropbox Terms of Service (<https://www.dropbox.com/terms>)

(as of 29/09/2017) (Effective on February 10, 2017)

When you use our Services, you provide us with things like your files, content, messages, contacts and so on ("Your Stuff"). Your Stuff is yours. These Terms don't give us any rights to Your Stuff except for the limited rights that enable us to offer the Services.

We need your permission to do things like hosting Your Stuff, backing it up, and sharing it when you ask us to. Our Services also provide you with features like photo thumbnails, document previews, commenting, easy sorting, editing, sharing and searching. These and other features may require our systems to access, store and scan Your Stuff. You give us permission to do those things, and this permission extends to our affiliates and trusted third parties we work with.

Nextcloud Privacy statement

(as of 29/09/2017) (<https://nextcloud.com/privacy>)

Our software, be it the Nextcloud server or the Android or iOS apps, do not sent any user data to us unless you explicitly enable such reporting through the server-side Usage Survey app.

Nextcloud (server) Terms of Service (?) (<https://nextcloud.com>)

(as of ... the beginning of time)
